At Mr. Carey's request, Legislative Counsel called Mr. McFall, Assistant Secretary of State for Congressional Relations, concerning Mr. McFall's possible intervention in the CIA negotiations for an [] Mr. McFall stated that he had met [] agent for the owner of the property, on a trip to Mexico and did not know him very well. He stated further that [] had called him long distance on 25 February to ask his assistance in saving the property from Federal purchase and had promised to send him a detailed memorandum of the property owner's position. I explained to Mr. McFall why CIA needed this property and that considerable engineering study had gone into selecting the site. Mr. McFall stated that he would take no action until receipt of the memorandum from [] and would then communicate directly with CIA Legislative Counsel.
